

How do I transfer a format file into my GPS receiver and how do I use this file to convert a job into a file using this format file?

Answer:

Transferring the format file

After creating the format file with Format Manager, copy it into the CONVERT directory on the PCMCIA card. Place the card into your GPS receiver.

From the MAIN\ menu on the GPS receiver: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Select the 7 Transfer... menu option. This takes you to the TRANSFER\ Menu screen.
In the TRANSFER\ Menu screen: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Select menu option 07 GSI/User. This takes you to the TRANSFER\ GSI/User screen.

In the TRANSFER\ GSI/User screen: The display on the right will appear if you have never loaded a format file on this receiver. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Press the F1 (OK) button.
Continuing in the TRANSFER\ GSI/User screen: We now want to copy the format file from the PCMCIA card to the system ram of the GPS receiver. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Press the F3 (FORMT) button. This takes you to the TRANSFER\ Format screen.
In the TRANSFER\ Format screen: The format file in the CONVERT directory should now be displayed in the "Format" field. Note: We are using the format file Pneoc.frt in this example. Press the F1 (CONT) button. This will copy the format file from the PCMCIA card and transfer it to your GPS receiver.

Continuing in the TRANSFER GSI/User file screen:

Once the transfer is complete, a “Transfer is done” message will appear at the bottom of the screen.

Converting Your Job Using the Format File

Continuing in the TRANSFER GSI/User file screen:

- Select the Job you want to format.
- Select the format file.
- Choose “User File” for “Destinatn” field.
- Enter a name for the new file with the proper extension for it in the “File” field.
- Press F1 (CONT) button.

A screen will open alerting you of how many points were transferred and you’ll be prompted to press the OK button to accept this information.
