

What is the difference between a free code and a thematic code?

Answer:

Thematic codes are point related information. They are recorded together with the actual measurement in the field.

Free codes are time-related information. They are recorded in between of measurements in the field. A time stamp is recorded with each free code allowing the user to export points and free codes in a chronological order to be used for third party mapping software.