

What is a dongle?

Answer:

A dongle is a software lock that allows you to access certain software programs and features. The dongle connects to the parallel port of your computer. Please see image below.

What is a dongle?